Our Aims
Inigma Employment is the new fastest growing recruitment player in the UK national recruitment market. We aim to provide an excellent customer service package to clients, and complete satisfaction with our unique method of selection of employees, by using our practical knowledge and understanding of various worksector requirements to identify key skills and expertise in prospective employees and successfully screen them for the right job. Inigma Employment aims to maintain and uphold the highest standard of customer service to all our clients, and to work closely with them, making every attempt to find the highest calibre of employee with the right skill base and work etiquette, to meet the job specification.

Achieving Our Aims
We have an experienced team of staff from different skilled backgrounds; each having knowledge and understanding of a particular field we can look to assess. For example areas such as administration, e-commerce, service sectors, IT, Sales, Engineering etc. Each candidate will be screened by a member of staff with an understanding of the relevant area before being forwarded to the employer. We also have methods to test prospective employees by way of written or practical test.

Working to Benefit You
As well as the benefit accrued by the employee in satisfaction in work, a proper screening program can yield positive employees with greater moral and better productivity. The right employee can help to cut cost by working more efficiently and effectively. Our continued attitude in seeking and providing the best employees is done with the intention of developing positive relationships with our clients, and so making us the number one choice for almost any recruitment solution and thus securing our continued success as the fastest growing recruitment agency.
